Eminent personalities such as PR Trivedi, retired VP of Mahindra and Mahindra Pune; Dr Faisal Ahmed, associate professor and chairman of IB, Fore School of Management, Delhi; Dr Syed Azharuddin, professor, department of Commerce; Dr Baba Saheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad; graced the occasion and shared their insights. Fifty delegates participated from institutes all over the country.

K L Dhingra, director, NIBM, and wife, Neelam Dhingra, now PhDs for the record books

PUNE: K L Dhingra, director, National Institute of Bank Management (NIBM) and his wife, Neelam Dhingra, has been named in the India Book of Records, as well as World Book of Records, for being the 'first couple conferred with a doctorate degree on the same day'. The couple got their respective PhDs on November 16, 2018, at the hands of Anil Sahasrabudhe, chairman, All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE). Dhingra and Neelam Dhingra not only registered for the PhD on the same day, but they appeared for the entrance examination on the same day; wrote Compulsory Papers simultaneously completed their PhD on emerging topics related to Central Public Sector Enterprises; and were also conferred the doctorate on the same day. Dr K L Dhingra has earlier been the chairman and managing director, Hudco, New Delhi and CMD, ITI, Bengaluru.

Annual acupuncture summit held at Indian medical association (IMA)

A grand two-wheeler tricolour rally was organised near Sun City Bus Stop in Sinhagad road by the residents of Manikbaug, Anandnagar, Hingane and Vishrantinagar under the guidance of Apulki social organisation.

The organisers of the rally, Prajakta Ruppe and Sameer Ruppe, said after lighting candles and offering tributes to the departed soldiers, the time had come for a befitting reply by entering into the enemy territory and neutralising terrorists.

Celebrations were organised by students at Fergusson College while workers of Muslim Rashtriya Manch (MRM), a wing of Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) distributed sweets, cold drinks and burst crackers to celebrate the air strikes.

Ali Daruwalla, president, MRM Pune congratulated Prime Minister Narendra Modi for carrying out the bold strikes inside Pakistan territory with the objective of flushing out the militants.

Like citizens across the length and breadth of the country, thousands of Punekars hailed the air strikes.

CELEBRATIONS WERE ORGANISED BY FERGUSSON COLLEGE STUDENTS WHILE WORKERS OF MUSLIM RASHTRIYA MANCH (MRM), A WING OF RASHTRIYA SWAYAMSEVAK SANGH